Legislator Cilmi Honors an Islip Royal Ranger

The Royal Rogers is a boys mentoring program through the Assemblies of God Churches that is designed to provide young men with challenging activities while providing them with Christian instruction. The Gold Medal of Achievement is the highest honor one can achieve as a Royal Ranger.
